

Introducing the Iowa Algebra Readiness Assessment

Why readiness?

- Identify when students are ready for Algebra I
- Maximize the success of students
- Assist in course placement
- Identify needed interventions

Why algebra?

- Algebra is the cornerstone of secondary mathematics
- Students are algebra-ready at different times
- Prominent role in the Common Core State Standards

Online delivery

Immediate reporting

Go to www.education.
uiowa.edu/itp
to get started

Why the Iowa Algebra Readiness Assessment?

- Information on four prerequisite areas, including national comparisons
- Information on the Common Core State Standards, identifying strengths and weaknesses
 - Valid measure to assist local educators in placement and instructional planning
 - Local schools determine needs for instructional resources

